TORONTO IN PHOTOGRAPHS

then...

A TEARFUL TOUR OF TORONTO'S RIVIERA OF YESTERYEAR

by John Richmond

A witty, sentimental, backward glance at the Toronto Islands, illustrated with photographs taken in the early decades of the 1900s by William James, Sr. Five pages in full colour from the originals of Lorraine Surcouf underline its message of elegance and beauty. $7.50

... and now!

THE NEW CITY: A Prejudiced View of Toronto

by Henri Rossier and Pierre Berton

An exciting photographic image of the dynamic city of Toronto, with the brilliant camera of newcomer Henri Rossier focussed on Toronto's people and places, and a not unprejudiced text supplied by Canada's most influential columnist. Well over a hundred photographs. $7.50
